REGISTERED ACCESSIBILITY SPECIALIST CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSE APPROVAL APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

PLEASE NOTE:

- The application must be completed and signed by the applicant.
- All information provided must be typed or printed in black ink.
- The application must be submitted on single-sided, 8½" x 11" paper.
- Please use a paperclip to fasten all pages together, with the check or money order on top. Do not use staples.

1. Provider Name and Number - Enter your provider name and your TDLR provider number. If you do not yet have your TDLR provider number, please write "APPLIED" in the TDLR provider number field.
2. Contact Person/Email - Enter the contact person's name and email that will be the point of contact for questions regarding the course.
3. Course Title - Enter your course title. You must use that same title in your course materials and advertising. The title is limited to a maximum of 30 characters.
4. Course Content - Enter the number of hours for each content area your course will cover. Courses must cover the following topics:
 - Texas Government Code, Chapter 469, Elimination of Architectural Barriers
 - 16 Texas Administrative Code, Chapter 68—Administrative Rules
 - Texas Accessibility Standards 2012 (TAS);
 - RAS Technical Memoranda, as published by the department; or
 - RAS Procedures, as published by the department; and
 - Other laws and standards:
2010 Standards for Accessible Design or other accessibility guidelines proposed or adopted by the Access Board or United States Department of Justice; Americans with Disabilities Act; International Code Council/American National Standards Institute (ANSI) A117.1 Standard on Accessible and Usable Buildings and Facilities; Life Safety Codes; or Fair Housing Act;
 - Business practices; ethics; or Presentations on products related to accessibility

Licensees must complete eight hours of continuing education, including a requirement for four hours in the following topics: law and rules regulating licensee conduct, TAS, RAS Technical Memoranda and RAS procedures. TDLR laws and rules must be quoted, no paraphrasing. Refer to AB administrative rules section 68.74 for specific continuing education requirements. (www.tdlr.texas.gov/ab/abrules.htm).

5. Course Length - Enter the number of CE hours (in whole hours) you are requesting for the course. Your course will be reviewed and the final number of course hours will be determined by our department.

Course Effective Date (optional): All courses are reviewed on a first-come, first-served basis, and are generally effective on the date of approval. If you would like your course effective date to be sometime later, enter it in the space provided on the application. The course certificate will print with the effective date noted on the application.

6. Delivery Method – Select your course delivery method or methods. A classroom course that uses the internet, computers or videos within the classroom should be selected as a classroom course. Courses that can only be taken on the internet should be selected as an internet course or webinar.

7. Delivery Language(s) - Select the language or languages in which you will give the course. If your course is in English, but has translations to other languages, the delivery language is English. If your course and materials are given in a different language (and not in English), select that other language. If your course is in more than one language, select each language for the course. Please notify the Education and Examination Division by mail or e-mail at the above address if you are going to offer the course in a different language at a later date.

8. Required Attachments

- a. Timed Topic Outline – The timed topic outline is a class schedule that shows the amount of time spent on each topic. For more information, please see the sample timed topic outline included with this application.
- b. Course Materials - Your application must be filed with all related course materials listed in your timed topic outline (see 7a. above). This includes videotapes, software, textbooks, handouts and any other presentation media. For internet-based courses, provide a link to your website (see 7d. below).
- Do not submit standard texts, or Texas law or rules. Instead, include the name of the text and the sections used.
 - If you are covering TDLR's laws or rules in your course materials, you must quote the laws or rules directly. You may add explanations to the quoted sections.
 - If you wish to have your course materials returned, enclose pre-paid return packaging with your application, including protection for DVDs. All USPS return mail requires metered postage.
 - You must provide enough course material information (slides, instructor notes, etc.) so that our staff can determine if your course covers the material in a way that encourages learning.
 - Course materials must have the following characteristics:
 - appropriate grammar, spelling and punctuation;
 - appropriate illustrations and graphics to show concepts not easily explained in words;
 - a comprehensive presentation of subject matter intended to increase or support the skills or abilities of the licensee.
- c. Attendance Verification – Describe your procedures for verifying licensee attendance, as required by Section 59.51(l): "Providers are responsible for the conduct and administration of their courses, including the punctuality of classroom sessions, verification of participant attendance and instructor performance. Providers shall ensure that their courses are administered in substantially the same manner as represented in the application for course approval."

Examples:

For a classroom course: You may require a photo ID and TDLR license card at sign-in, and require the licensee to sign the attendance roster at the end of the course. You would be required to confirm that the licensee spends at least the approved amount of time taking the course.

For a web-based course: Your course, which should be timed so that the licensee is active in the course for the full amount of TDLR-approved course time, may include attendance verification questions such as favorite actor, car or truck, etc. At least two attendance verification questions per hour are to be asked and answered (per rule, each "hour" represents 50 minutes of course time).

- d. Internet Course Log-in and Attendance Verification Procedures – Each internet course application must include the log-in information for the website. Each internet course application must include attendance verification questions.
- e. Course application fee – You must submit a separate course application for each course along with the course application fee. If you are sending more than one application, you may combine the application fees in one check (example: three course applications with one check for $300.00).

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- It is your responsibility to include correct and up-to-date course content material, and also to provide updates to the material as necessary (example: rule changes which occur after the course is approved).
- Courses or portions of courses that promote the product or products of a manufacturer will NOT be considered for approval.
- No course may be advertised as an approved course unless it is approved by the TDLR. All advertising must follow department requirements as stated in Section 59.51(b) and (k).
- Your course is valid for a period of one year from the date it was approved. The expiration date of your course will be shown on the course approval certificate. Your approved course will no longer be valid if your provider's registration is cancelled.
- No courses may be given after the course expiration date. Internet course providers must make sure no courses are completed after the course expiration date.
- Please send your application, documentation, and your check or money order in the amount of $100.00 per course application, payable to TDLR, to the address at the top of this form. The application fee is non-refundable. If you are sending material overnight, send it to the department's physical address (TDLR, 920 Colorado Street; Austin, TX 78701). Do not use the USPS; since all USPS mail is delivered to the State's centralized mail service for distribution from the central mail depository before being sorted and delivered to TDLR.
